SEA COAST ECHO

Since its founding in 1892, the Sea Coast Echo has only had a handful of offices in its 128-year-old life.

However, the newspaper will move to a new, more efficient location in the near future.

But like the other newspaper office locations over the years, the new location will also be in downtown Bay St. Louis.

The land and building which has housed the Echo since the 1960s – 124 Court Street – are being put up for sale effective this week.

“Since we no longer print the Echo at our location here, we just no longer need all of this space,” Echo General Manager Geoff Belcher said. “We have more than 8,000 square feet of space here and we simply do not need all of that anymore.”

Belcher noted that the Echo building could be put to much better use by someone who will develop it and bring more jobs and services to downtown Bay St.

Ruth’s Roots gets special delivery

BY CASSANDRA FAVRE
STAFF WRITER

Ruth’s Roots community garden on Friday received a special delivery, a new butterfly house. Garden caretaker Elise Deano said the garden’s newest addition was made possible by a grant from Coast Electric and private donations. Local volunteers Derrick Hall and his grandfather Bertrand Foxworth cut the grass and poured the slab in anticipation of the arrival of the butterfly house, Deano said. The funds also provided for the installation of musical instruments at the garden, she added. Ruth’s Roots, named after the late Ruth Thompson, is located at the former location of Ruth’s Cakery at 130 Court St. in Bay St. Louis.

The community garden is home to chickens, a beehive, rabbits, a weather station, a koi pond, waterfall and a chess table. The garden also has a Little Free Library and non-perishable food bank. Ruth’s Roots is a registered 501(C)3 non-profit. Learn more about Ruth’s Roots through Facebook and Instagram.

“Rural areas don’t have a lot of opportunity for licensed childcare that is affordable, quality, and accessible,” Mederos said. “Those are the three buzzwords for childcare.”

The infant classroom accepts children who are six weeks old and up, she said, and is currently only open to the district’s staff members.

The classroom is led by instructor Alexandria Nguyen who will be utilizing Frogstreet curriculum, Mederos said.

“We will let it grow into a one-year-old classroom and grow them until they become preschoolers,” she added.

The infant room curriculum is based on social, emotional, intellectual, and physical growth, Mederos said. There is a daily schedule of activities as well as a daily lesson plans.

United Way also provided the classroom’s furnishings through a emerging need grant, Mederos said.

Julie Schmidt, United Way’s Community Impact and Education Director, said that the emerging is for new projects.

“It’s for new ideas,” she said. “We are so excited to see it implemented, it’s amazing. Staff can come to school and work and check on their babies.”

Mederos said that programs like this wouldn’t be possible without community support and support from the HCHRA’s board members: Marsha Christmas, Melanie Mitchell, Jean Pugh, Clarence Harris, Jimmy Loiciano, and Willie C. Acker.

Hancock County School District Superintendent Alan Dedeaux said it’s a “win-win” situation.

“The babies here will be students one day,” he said. “It’s never too early to get them started with this wonderful program.”

The HCHRA’s other preschool programs are open to the public, Mederos said.

PSC Approves Rate Decrease for Mississippi Power Customers in Mississippi

Customers can expect to see the decrease reflected in the next billing cycle

SEA COAST ECHO

In a Special Meeting held Tuesday, March 17, the Mississippi Public Service Commission unanimously voted to approve a rate decrease for Mississippi Power customers. This action is a result of the Commission ordering a rate case to reevaluate rates for Mississippi Power Company.

Mississippi Power customers can expect to see a $2.50 decrease per kilowatt hour (kWh) on the next billing cycle.

“I’m excited to see another decrease for Mississippi Power customers particularly during these times of uncertainty,” Chairman Dane Maxwell said. “We will continue to work with every company across the state to ensure affordable, reliable service for customers in Mississippi.”

This rate reduction is the second rate decrease since Chairman Maxwell has been in office.

not allowed to leave the boat.

Adam said that the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention is changing its guidance from 250 people in large gatherings to 50 people for the next eight weeks.

The board also discussed county departments such as the tax assessor’s office and the courthouse, which see higher volumes of foot traffic.

Hancock County Tax Assessor Jimmie Ladner said that people can pay their car tags and taxes online for a small fee.

“That fee is not something that the county charges,” he said. “It’s the third-party processor so there’s nothing we can do about that. It’s three percent. Anything you can pay in person at our office, you can pay online, with the exception of solid waste and that’s something you can mail in.”

The drivers license location, located in Kiln, will be closed until March 31, Adam said.

Adam said that the CDC recommends that if someone is sick, especially with flu-like symptoms, to stay home.

“All it takes is one person to have this and then a lot of people will have it,” he said. “I would highly recommend everyone use that practice.

If they have symptoms, they are recommended to call their physicians first.”

Hancock County Chancery Clerk Tim Kellar suggested that departments post signs listing a phone number to call to determine if staff can remotely help people.

Hancock County Circuit Clerk Kendra Necaie said that the circuit court judges cancelled the criminal dockets for Monday.

“The Supreme Court order that I have says that they don’t want gatherings of 200 people, but our circuit judges say 50,” she said.

Necaie added that her office cannot mail out jury summons until April 13.

County Administrator Eddie Favre also told the board to expect a reduction in sales tax revenues.

“From a financial situation, just like with (Hurricane) Katrina, there’s going to eventually be reductions in revenues for some time period because of this,” Favre said. “If the casinos start shutting down, even if they officially don’t shut down, there’s going to be fewer people going there.”

The board also voted to temporarily close public facilities, which includes public community centers, shelters, the sports complex, county-owned fields and parks, the arena, public restrooms located on county property, and all open county areas until at least April 20, 2020. However, the board will reevaluate the closures at its April 6 meeting.

McLeod Park will remain open.

Buccaneer Park, which is a state-owned park, will remain open, but is closing its restroom facilities, Director of Buccanner Park Stu Rayborn said Tuesday.

“It is not open to primitive camping,” he said. “The park is open to self-contained campers only.”

The pavilions are not open for rental at this time, he said. The situation will be reassessed on March 31.

The board also approved an employment policy concerning safety measures at work in compliance with the CDC and Mississippi State Department of Health.

A list of preventative guidelines can be found on the CDC’s website at <https://www.cdc.gov/coronavirus/2019-ncov/prepare/prevention.html>.

"The bottom line is, The Arts, Hancock County, the mayor's office and the Old Town Merchants Association are working closely together to continue to stimulate the economy in Hancock County." Myrna Green, executive director of the Hancock County Tourism Bureau, said there's no doubt there will be an impact on the county's largely-tourism-based economy, but it's too soon to tell just yet what will happen.

"We're going to close the Visitors Center and the Tourism office through next Wednesday, March 18-25," Green said, "and then we're going to assess the situation and do an update. ... "It's still too early to tell. There are so many possible repercussions. Tourism is just basically coming to a halt, for now.

want to encourage everyone to not panic.
Those of us who survived the dark days after Hurricane Katrina are certainly no strangers to living without certain luxuries; closures of businesses; and spending a lot of time in our homes (those who were lucky to still have a home).
During these times of quarantine, we can read books, stream movies online, play games with family members, and also enjoy some time in the backyard.

I'm hoping that if we all just follow the guidelines put in place by officials now, there will be a swifter end to this and less chance of this spreading to our vulnerable populations.
All we can do is take it day by day. Be mindful of your actions. Just because you are healthy and probably would survive the virus, doesn't mean you won't bring it to someone who can't fight it off like you could.
Be kind to one another. Don't demean someone because they feel more anxious than you do. We all cope with things in different ways. Talk to them and try to understand why they are feeling this way.

This situation has brought out the ugly in so many people, but the good is starting to overshadow it.
I hope you all stay safe and healthy in the coming days.

Belcher said that the newspaper will remain in the building until it

"People will see a sign on the building, but I want to stress to everyone that the newspaper itself is not for sale, that only the land and building are for sale," he said.

Food Shopping During Trying Times

BY LINDA BIGLER
CONTRIBUTING WRITER

Recently, going shopping with a list has been a bit stressful and disappointing because some of the shelves may be empty. The store managers are doing their best to keep the shelves stocked, but some supplies are slow in getting to the retailer. There are many options in the supermarket that may not be on your list.

Pick up some, onions, potatoes, garlic, and tomatoes in the produce aisle, if they are available. Should the lettuce you usually buy not be available, try a different variety. If there is no lettuce, get some fresh spinach, cabbage, carrots, or broccoli. Notice I did not say kale, I have not yet reached that point of desperation. Salads are a good source of vitamins as are steamed vegetables.

As you pass by the meat section and see it lacking, try some of the less common cuts. Turkey parts might be in the case along with ham hocks and assorted sausage.

These can be cooked alone or included in soups, stews, gumbos, and beans.

Dried beans are an excellent source of protein. There are a myriad variety of them on the store shelves. Their colors go from white to black with yellow, green, pink, and red in between. Pick up a few bags, cook them with onions, garlic, green peppers, celery, and whatever else you feel like throwing in the pot with them. Ham, pickle meat, sausage, or turkey necks are usually welcome additions to a pot of beans.

Be sure not to salt them until they are almost done especially if you are using ham or other salty ingredients.

If fresh vegetables are in short supply, go for the frozen or canned variety. I prefer the frozen, but there are times we purchase what is available.

In addition, check the frozen section for meat.

There are usually ducks, turkeys, frozen hamburger patties, just to name a few items. There is nothing wrong with cooking a turkey in March or April. Try spatchcocking it and cooking it on the grill.

Dried pasta is another good item to toss into your shopping cart. If your usual shapes cannot be found, try some other types. Most of them are made from the same ingredients. Pick up a couple packages of gnocchi, a pasta made with potatoes, for a change. It cooks up in about three minutes and can be served with your preferred pasta sauce. It is also great when served with just butter and Parmesan cheese.

Do not forget to visit the canned seafood aisle. Canned tuna and salmon have many uses.

They can be used in salads, sandwiches, and casseroles. Prepare your favorite tomato sauce, homemade or canned, and throw in a couple of cans of tuna or salmon. Drain the tuna if it is packed in water.

Do not forget the condiments. Olives, capers, jalapeno peppers, etc.

are useful add ins to add texture and taste to many dishes. Get some sliced pickles or pickled green beans, dip them in egg wash and cornmeal, then fry them.

Cornmeal and flour are useful staples to have in your pantry.

Cornbread can be prepared in a skillet like pancakes for a diverse cooking method.

If milk goes sour, you can use it in cornbread, biscuits, pancakes, or waffles.

Here are a few other ideas to help you get to the end of the rainbow. Have breakfast for dinner. Let the children help you with the menu. Since they will be home for a few days; have a picnic in the back yard. Make peanut butter in the blender or food processor using roasted or canned peanuts. If you purchased some of those colorful dried beans, give them to the kids along with some cardboard and white glue. They can make mosaics for you.

Be extra kind and polite to those who are working hard to make your shopping experience as pleasant as possible.

They are experiencing the same uncertainty as you are.

Keep in mind that this too will pass. Remember the wise words of Rudyard Kipling, "If you can keep your head while all about you are losing theirs and blaming it on you..."

MISSING OUR FRIEND AND NEIGHBOR

BY GARY ANDREWS

Living in a close knit neighborhood is very rewarding in itself. Your neighbors watch out for you, they watch your property while you are gone; they wave when they see you and talk with you when you are close by. These are tremendous attributes of living in a neighborhood where everyone knows each other and cares for each other.

My wife and I, our children and our grandchildren have become much attached to our neighbors and when one of them leaves us for any reason, especially when God calls one home, we are lonely and miss this neighbor dearly. There are times when some neighbors leave us and we don't get to say goodbye because the neighbor was distant to us and we weren't friendly enough to approach him or her and be the neighbor God wants us to be. Then there are times when a very close friend and neighbor goes home to be with the Lord and the hurt and pain linger for a long time because we miss that friend and her conversations and pleasantries.

One of the finest ladies I have ever met lived across from us. Her husband went home to be with the Lord two years ago and this spring she joined him in heaven to once again form a tremendous union that began on earth many, many years ago. As in her husband's funeral, her children were a big part of the music and oratory parts of the service when they gave their final goodbye to their mom. Again, I marvel at the composure and attitude these four children, along with their families, were able to have when saying so long to a mom that had guided and nurtured them for their years on this earth.

Her presence in our neighborhood has been missed by all of us. Each time I pass her house I look to see if the front door is open and if she is sitting in her favorite chair reading or talking on the telephone. Her wisdom was greatly appreciated by me and her loving, kind spirit toward everyone will never be forgotten. My grandchildren miss her dearly as they would venture over to see her and be welcomed with open arms.

This type generosity and graciousness will live on through her memory. All of her neighbors loved her and respected her and counted on her to be close by in a time of need. It is always great to see her children come back to their home place, even though they may be cleaning and/or going through treasured possessions. Their home place has a void since their parents have gone to live with the Lord, however all of them know with certainty that a great reunion is in the future for all of them.

For us in the neighborhood, we miss her dearly and always will. It is my hope and desire that one day another neighbor will occupy her house and become the neighbor that she and her husband were, however filling the void of these two great lives can never be accomplished.

Our friend and neighbor's name was Joy and she was a joy to be around and talk with. In the gospel of Matthew we are told about the salt and light of the world. Joy was and will always be remembered through Matthew 5:16, "Let you light so shine before men, that they may see your good works and glorify your Father in heaven."

Her life was an example that all of us could pattern ourselves after.

Prayer: Father God, thank you for good neighbors. Thank you for people that care and are willing to lend a hand or an ear in a time of need. Thank you for Joy and the life that she led. Amen.

PORT & HARBOR COMMISSION SWEARS IN 3 NEW COMMISSIONERS

SEA COAST ECHO

The Hancock County Port and Harbor Commission welcomed 3 new Commissioners at their most recent meeting on January 27, 2020. Hancock County Chancery Clerk Timothy Kellar performed the swearing-in ceremony for the newly appointed Commissioners by administering the official Oath of Office.

The Port & Harbor Commission is comprised of 8 members who are appointed by either The Hancock County Board of Supervisors or by the Governor at the recommendation of each of the city mayors.

The newest appointees are:

Robert Martin of Waveland, appointed by Supervisor Theresa Ryan (District 1)

Derek Necaise of Kiln, appointed by Supervisor Kodie Koenenn (District 3)

appointed by Supervisor Darrin "Bo" Ladner (District 5)

After being appointed, the Commissioner's term runs concurrently with their appointee's term, or until they are replaced.

Information about Port & Harbor's Commissioners is available on the HCPHC website, www.portairspace.com.

deaths down dramatically.

It may be time to abandon handshakes. The handshake originated centuries ago. It was a way of showing that you did not have a sword or weapon in your hand. A smile, a nod, an elbow or fist bump is far more practical in this day and age. Let's work on that.

Viruses mutate rapidly. Viruses that kill their hosts don't do so well. Over time, this new coronavirus will mutate into something far less lethal.

If we escape this scare, and I believe we will, it will be a wake-up call to develop a plan to fast-track vaccine and other anti-viral treatments. You can bet our medical community will acquire a huge amount of expertise as this epidemic unfolds.

Two previous novel coronavirus epidemics, and the Ebola virus, died off quickly because they were so lethal. There is an inverse correlation between lethality and communicability. The deadlier the virus, the less it spreads. The more it spreads, the less deadly. This creates a natural protective mechanism for humans. This did not happen with the Bubonic plague because it was carried by rats and fleas without killing them. The coronavirus has no intermediary carrier. If it kills us, it kills itself.

Our ability to instantly communicate around the world with the Internet and smartphones gives us a huge weapon against the coronavirus. We are alert, knowledgeable and responsive. This is nothing like the Spanish Flu epidemic of 1918.

After this scare, we will get a long overdue recession and bear market behind us, leading the way to another decade of economic and stock market growth.

Let's use this experience to better rely on our faith and trust in God. We should not make our comfort and security an idol. Our ancestors had to deal with plagues, droughts, invasions, diseases and natural disasters on a scale far beyond what we are now experiencing. Yet here we are. We survived.

Let's put this in perspective. Antibiotic-resistant bacteria causes 35,000 deaths a year in the United States.

That's 500 times more than the coronavirus. That's a tragedy, and we are working towards a solution, but nobody is in a panic about that. It hasn't shut down our economy.

Because this is a new strain of coronavirus, there are unknowns. The medical community is being very cautious. That's their job. Our job is to be sensible and not panic.

Let's practice appropriate hygiene and social distancing measures until we get more data. Then let's all get back to living our lives.

KREWE OF DIAMONDHEAD MARDI GRAS BALL CELEBRATES THE BRITISH INVASION OF 2020!

BY KATHRYN LARSEN
PUBLICITY LIEUTENANT

The Krewe of Diamondhead and guests entered the Emerald Ballroom and were greeted with US and British flags, red, white, and blue decorations including iconic red telephone booths and an outline of the London skyline on February 15, 2020. Our Social Lieutenant was responsible for the decorations and tableau with her committee. Social Lieutenant Sarah Schafer-Parrington, introduced the Master of Ceremonies, Kevin Parrington. Royalty from other Krewes, were acknowledged; Boaters: King Ken and Queen Jamie Dropco, Krewe of Se-lene: King Steven and Queen Angie Burkhardt, Krewe of Olympus: King Tim and Queen Kelly Kennedy. Board members from the Krewe of Diamond-head were recognized, after which the Royal Guard was recognized, consisting of six Past Kings who entered the room to the music of "Carnival Time." Next, Captain Sandy Hatem was introduced, and entered the ballroom to the music of "Doo Wah Diddy." As the court was introduced, each maid wore head pieces by Haley and Judy which complimented their red gowns. To the music of "She Loves You," Duke Jim and Maid Sherry Bulger entered the ballroom. Next, to the music of "Long Cool Woman in Black Dress," entered Duke Hoppy and Maid Suzy Smith. Third of the court entered to the music of "Glad all Over," Duke Mark Miller and Maid Annette Williams. Last of the Maids and Dukes, Duke Peter Morgan and Maid Cindy McNamee entered the ballroom to the tune of "Gimmie Some Lov-ing," each in turn, took their place on the stage to await the arrival of the king and queen. To the music of "The Wedding Fanfare" Her Royal Highness, Queen Jamie Wetzel Morgan came into the ballroom, escorted by her father Jim Wetzel. Queen Jamie was resplendent in a couture gown by Gonzalo Calderon of Miami. The gold bodice of illusion and fitted A line gown was of imported French lace and gold with hand-made beading that fell gracefully into a train. The crown and scepter were custom made from Dynasty of Mobile. The traditional mantle fell from a matching gold Medici collar made of gold beading, custom built by Dixie Trosclair of Biloxi. Then, waiting with great pride, the court, krewe members and guests all welcomed Ali' I Honua, the 45th, King

Scott McNamee to the music of "If Ever I Cease to Love You." King Scott wore the traditional white tailed tuxedo with a crown to compliment the queen's. The king and queen recognized many special guests consisting of friends and family who were in attendance. The Queen's family visited from Biloxi. Previous queens were recognized as inspiring women who have served the organization with distinction. King Scott and Queen Jamie announced that they would like to entertain the guests. There were distinct musical performances by krewe members and guests that remembered epic entertainment from The Ed Sullivan Show, American Bandstand. The finale was sung by Sarah along with husband Kevin Parrington, who had every attendee waving themed flags and singing along.

Highlights a video set were the perfectly injected with individual interviews of Royalty and their Court illustrating personal stories of the British Invasion's impact. After the entertainment, toasts and proclamations were offered which lead to the first royal dance of the evening, to the tune of "Mull of Kintyre." A fabulous prime rib medallion dinner was served with dancing to the Regulators to close out the evening.

Meet Jasper. This darling little American Staffordshire Terrier mix puppy is as smart as he is adorable. At only 3 1/2 months old, he is already sitting for treats and walks confidently on a leash and harness. We anticipate that Jasper will be a quick learner, and be eager to master new tasks. We adore his innate sweetness and affectionate nature towards people and other dogs. He would be a wonderful family pet, or a fun companion for a single person or couple of any age. Of course, being a youngster, Jasper will require house and crate training, and a family devoted to spending quality time with him. Playtime, exercise, toys, sharing walks together, training and socialization all contribute to raising a healthy, happy adult dog. We want the best for this little guy. So, if you are able to meet the physical and emotional needs of a growing puppy, please visit Jasper at the Hancock County Animal Shelter, 7175 Texas Flat Rd, Kiln, MS. You are sure to fall in love with him. Call 228 466 4516 for more information, and visit our Facebook Page, Hancock County Animal Shelter, MS, to see more pictures of Jasper, and of the many other wonderful, adoptable animals looking for their forever homes.

High school teams make their way back to diamond, only to be thrown out by COVID-19

BY JOSEPH W. GEX, II
STAFF WRITER

With spring on the horizon, the green lush grass is beginning to be seen and smelled on the area high school diamonds. The squads have practiced throughout the winter and have taken the field once again in pursuit of the elusive gold ball that symbolizes the state's best.

However, having said all that, COVID-19 has spread its germs on the activities throughout Mississippi. While practices and games are suspended through March 29th and until further notice, here is a quick look at area teams prior to the suspension.

The area returns several key players on both the softball and baseball diamonds. Here is a look at what the area returns and an update on the current state of affairs on the diamond.

BAY HIGH

The Bay High Tigers struggled last year with an influx of young players and this year is not drastically different with the only exception being that the greenies are a year older. The Tigers lost Cade Compretta and Garrett Langrell with the latter now throwing at Jones County Junior College. Compretta brought a big bat to the lineup while Langrell had a live arm on the mound. There are several returning players to the Tiger squad including Carson Moran, Cooper Cooksey, Antonio Saltalamacchia, Lawrence Peterson, Ben Wilemon and Eli Bigham. Bay High head coach Kevin Burdine commented, "We are a young team but our expectations of this group are to be competitive each time we step onto the field and progress as the season continues. I expect this group to work hard at improving themselves." Currently, the Tigers are sporting a 1-5 record after beating Gautier 8-3 last Saturday falling to Greene County 8-3 on the 14th.

HANCOCK

The Hancock Hawks lost Lane Ladner to Meridian Community College but return a solid nucleus to make a run at a playoff berth. The Hawks return Jones County JC signee Colby Oliver along with Colton Cuevas, Tanner Lemon, Russell Frank, Jackson Garrett, and Blaine Knight among others. There are a few newcomers to the Hawks' ranks like Peyton Dewitt, Max Garrett, and Sean Ostheimer. Hancock head coach Anthony Dewitt stated, "We have a goal to make the playoffs and see how far we can go. We have some solid pitching returning this year which will help us stay in games and, hopefully, limit the opponent. We have a really good group of guys that are coachable. We are looking forward to getting into our division schedule." The Hawks (5-4) fell to Picayune 11-1 last Saturday but came from behind on Friday to beat Long Beach 9-6. Lemon had three hits with three RBIs including a homerun while Dewitt had three hits including a homerun. Frank added two RBIs while Knight had a triple and Payton Patterson and Oliver each had a single in the win. Dewitt added, "Colton Cuevas started for us tonight and had some good stuff. Tanner Lemon came in relief and gave us chances to be successful." Last week, Hancock split with PRC winning 5-1 on Tuesday and falling 18-6 on Thursday.

PASS CHRISTIAN

The Pass Christian Pirates graduated two of their stronger batters last May when they lost Trentin Niolet and Marcos Chacon. This year the Pirates bring back Dustin Allison and Mason Knapp whom head coach Ricky Smith said the team is looking to for leadership. Other returners include Ian Trocheset and Logan Webb. Some newcomers to the squad that may figure into playing time include freshmen Payton Lacy and Eli Hilbun. Smith stated, "The playoffs are definitely a goal for us this season. We want to get in the post-season and see what we can do. I like our experience that we have coming back across the board. It is time to knock off the rust and get some innings under our belt." The Pirates were 9-19 last season and were eliminated in the first round by Sumrall. So far this season, the Pirates are 2-9. They split a pair of games last weekend falling to Alcorn Central 5-3 and besting St. Patrick 6-1. On Wednesday, the Pirates stumbled against Canton Academy 3-1 and Heritage Academy 7-0 on Thursday.

SAINT STANISLAUS

The St. Stanislaus Rock-a-chaws advanced to the second round of the state playoffs after claiming the Division 8-4A title last season. The Rocks graduated a solid nucleus of players last May that includes Trace Rhodes, Colin Fredrickson, Peyton Sandroek, Tristan Bush and Corban O'Bannon. However, there are returning players that have been in the system for some time that include Braxton Bean, Taylor Lafontaine, Dawson Strong, Ethan McNeill, Cole Fletcher among others. Some top newcomers that look to challenge for playing time include Easton Logan, Keaton Cunningham, Aaron Rush, Brad Dossett, Conner Ladner, Cade Rosetti and Brandon Rhodes. SSC head coach Mark Logan commented, "Right now, we want to be consistent and do what we do. We have 10 seniors so several of them have been with us for many years. We are stressing to them to play SSC baseball. We always want to win our division, get in the playoffs and see what we can do. We have a good mix of veterans and new guys. Now, we develop chemistry and go from there." Currently, the Rocks are 6-9 having lost to Petal 6-0 on Friday and beat Columbia 12-4 in the Sumrall Tournament. Seniors Max Favre and Dallas Payne grew up on the gridiron together at SSC and will continue that chemistry and comraderie at Northeast Mississippi CC in Booneville as they both inked National Letters of Intent to play for the school.

Favre, a quarterback, continues a long line of SSC quarterbacks that have signed to play at the next level dating back to 1995.

Favre will join the ranks of Nathan Middleton (Morehead), Corey Gex, (Ole Miss), Jason Santiago (PRCC/LA Tech), Stephen Kulikowski (PRCC), Lance Cuevas (PRCC), Chad Boos (PRCC), Dylan Favre (Mississippi State/PRCC/Tennessee-Martin), Bo Brennan (Ole Miss), Tyler Allen (MG-CCC), Myles Brennan (LSU), and Jacob Greer (PRCC).

Favre stepped into the starting role halfway through his junior season in 2018 and held the job until the first round play-off loss to Poplarville this year.

Favre commented, “I am very excited to get back on the field and be able to show what I can do. Northeast Mississippi was the only school in the state to show any interest. I had some Division III interest and a community college in Iowa but I wanted to stay a little closer to home near family and friends.”

This past season Favre was an All-Division 8-4A player who threw for 3,086 yards and 39 touchdowns on 232-for-357 passing with 14 interceptions.

The school will keep Favre at quarterback.

Favre added, “At SSC, our coaches taught us to value hard work and team work. I plan to take those lessons to heart when I arrive on campus at NEMS.”

Payne, a 6’4” 210-lb wide receiver, earned Mississippi Association of Coaches first team All-State for Class 4A after leading the class with 85 receptions and 17 touchdowns. He was also a first-year selection for the All-Sea Coast Echo team and Offensive Player of the Year for Division 8-4A.

Payne stated, “When I stepped on the Northeast campus, I felt like I was at home. The players and coaches really made it feel like home. From the head coach to the offensive coordinator to the wide receiver coach, they all came from a winning program and have instilled that mindset on the team.”

Payne follows other big SSC receivers to the next level like Corbin Blanchard (Air Force Academy), Chase Rogers (Louisiana-Lafayette/Ole Miss), and Darius Pittmann (Purdue/Temple).

The team projects Payne to remain at wide receiver.

In addition to his football prowess, Payne also has lettered in varsity basketball and track and field while at SSC. He will also play basketball at Northeast Mississippi.

Payne added, “Playing at SSC has made me a better player and a better person. My coaches - Nate Encrpera, John Haberman, and Mike Shimshock - all brought different qualities to our team and we were able to learn from. Our weight program has made a big difference in how we play the game. I can see the mindset at Northeast is similar and I am excited to get up there and work hard to make the transition.”

SSC head coach Nate Encrpera commented,

“Both Max and Dallas have worked so hard in the weightroom, on the field with 7-on-7 in the summer and throughout the season. It was fun watching them from the second half of their junior season forward.

They have a feel for each other out there on the field. Max put the ball in a place where Dallas had a chance. It was fun watching them mature on the field and play with confidence.”

Northeast Mississippi

was 3-6 overall last season and play as a member of the North division in the Mississippi Association of Community and Junior Colleges.

leadership is working diligently to adjust to this rapidly evolving situation and will share updates as soon as possible. Thank you for your patience and understanding as we continue to work through this unfortunate situation together.”

It was stated that “... contingency plans for regular season competition and the return to play are being formulated and will be announced and implemented by the MHSAA at the appropriate time. Each spring fine-arts activity and sports championship event is being reviewed and actions will be taken with the possibility of new dates and venue sites. A decision to continue spring contests and activities will be made as soon as possible in the best interests of the student-athletes, coaches, administrators and communities.”

The MHSAA Executive Committee is made up of 15 schools administrators from around the state.
